

SUPPLEMENT NO. 1 DATED 18 MARCH 2025
PURSUANT TO ARTICLE 23 (1) OF THE REGULATION (EU)
2017/1129 (AS AMENDED) (THE "PROSPECTUS REGULATION")

to the

J.P.Morgan

Registration Document

for retail non-equity securities

dated 31 May 2024

J.P. Morgan SE

(incorporated as European company in Germany)

The significant new factor resulting in this supplement (the "Supplement") to the registration document of J.P. Morgan SE dated 31 May 2024 (the "Registration Document") is the decision made on 26 February 2025 to update the risk factors in relation to JPMorgan Chase as set out in the Registration Document of J.P. Morgan Structured Products B.V. dated 17 April 2024 (the "JPMSP Registration Document"). In connection with the decision to update the risk factors in relation to JPMorgan Chase, J.P. Morgan Structured Products B.V. has supplemented the JPMSP Registration Document by way of supplement no. 2 to the JPMSP Registration Document dated 26 February 2025 which has been approved by the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier in Luxembourg ("CSSF") on 26 February 2025. The information in the supplement no. 2 to the JPMSP Registration Document is incorporated by reference into the Registration Document by way of this Supplement as set out in Section A of this Supplement.

In addition thereto, by way of this Supplement, the information about the Management Board and Supervisory Board of J.P. Morgan SE is updated as set out in Section B of this Supplement. This amendment does not constitute a significant new factor, material mistake or material inaccuracy within the meaning of Article 23 (1) of the Prospectus Regulation.

Section A - Changes to the Registration Document in relation to the decision to update the risk factors in relation to JPMorgan Chase

I. Amendments to section "II. Risk Factors"

The third paragraph of the subsection "1. Risks affecting JPMSE as an affiliate of JPMorgan Chase" under "Risks affecting JPMSE's parent company and other J.P. Morgan affiliates which may also affect JPMSE." on pages 4 et seqq. of the Registration Document shall be replaced as follows:

"These risks in relation to JPMorgan Chase are set out in more detail at pages 4 to 41 of the second supplement dated 26 February 2025 (the "Second Supplement to the JPMSP Registration Document") to the registration document of J.P. Morgan Structured Products B.V. dated 17 April 2024 which has been approved by the Commission de Surveillance de Secteur Finance in Luxembourg (the "JPMSP Registration Document") and are hereby incorporated by reference into this Registration Document. The risks affecting JPMorgan Chase include:

Regulatory, Legal and Reputation Risks

- JPMorgan Chase's businesses are highly regulated, and the laws, rules and regulations that apply to JPMorgan Chase have a significant impact on its business and operations.
- Differences and inconsistencies in financial services regulation and supervision can negatively impact JPMorgan Chase's businesses, operations and financial results.
- Resolving regulatory investigations can subject JPMorgan Chase to significant penalties and collateral consequences, and could result in higher compliance costs or restrictions on its operations.
- JPMorgan Chase's operations and financial results can be negatively impacted in jurisdictions with less predictable legal and regulatory frameworks.
- JPMorgan Chase's businesses may be negatively impacted by governmental policies that either discourage or penalise business with certain industries or require specific business practices.

- Requirements for the orderly resolution of JPMorgan Chase could result in JPMorgan Chase having to restructure or reorganise its businesses and could increase its funding or operational costs or curtail its businesses.
- Holders of JPMorgan Chase & Co.'s debt and equity securities will absorb losses if it were to enter into a resolution.
- JPMorgan Chase faces significant legal risks from litigation and formal and informal regulatory and government investigations.
- JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. is affected by the risks that affects its parent company.
- Damage to JPMorgan Chase's reputation could harm its businesses.
- Failure to effectively manage potential conflicts of interest or to satisfy fiduciary obligations can result in litigation and enforcement actions, as well as damage JPMorgan Chase's reputation.

Political and Country Risks

- Economic uncertainty or instability caused by political and geopolitical developments can negatively impact JPMorgan Chase's businesses.
- An outbreak or escalation of hostilities between countries or within a country or region could have a material adverse effect on the global economy and on JPMorgan Chase's businesses within the affected region or globally.
- JPMorgan Chase's business and operations in certain countries can be adversely affected by local economic, political, regulatory and social factors.

Market and Credit Risks

- Economic and market events and conditions can materially affect JPMorgan Chase's businesses and investment and market-making positions.
- JPMorgan Chase's consumer businesses can be negatively affected by adverse economic conditions and governmental policies.
- Unfavourable market and economic conditions can have an adverse effect on JPMorgan Chase's wholesale businesses.
- Changes in interest rates and credit spreads can adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's earnings, its liquidity or its capital levels.
- JPMorgan Chase's results may be materially affected by market fluctuations and significant changes in the valuation of financial instruments.
- JPMorgan Chase can be negatively affected by adverse changes in the financial condition of clients, counterparties, custodians and CCPs.
- JPMorgan Chase may suffer losses if the value of collateral declines in stressed market conditions.

- JPMorgan Chase could incur significant losses arising from concentrations of credit and market risk.

Liquidity and Capital Risks

- JPMorgan Chase's ability to operate its businesses could be impaired if its liquidity is constrained.
- JPMorgan Chase & Co. is a holding company and depends on the cash flows of its subsidiaries to make payments on its outstanding securities.
- Reductions in JPMorgan Chase's credit ratings may adversely affect its liquidity and cost of funding.
- Maintaining the required level and composition of capital may impact JPMorgan Chase's ability to support business activities, meet evolving regulatory requirements and distribute capital to shareholders

Operational, Strategic, Conduct and People Risks

- JPMorgan Chase's businesses are dependent on the effectiveness of internal and external operational systems.
- A successful cyber-attack affecting JPMorgan Chase could cause significant harm to JPMorgan Chase and its clients and customers.
- JPMorgan Chase can be negatively affected if it fails to identify and address operational risks associated with the introduction of or changes to products, services and delivery platforms or the adoption of new technologies.
- JPMorgan Chase's business and operations rely on its ability, and the ability of key external parties, to maintain appropriately-staffed workforces, and on the competence, trustworthiness, health and safety of employees.
- JPMorgan Chase faces substantial legal and operational risks in the processing and safeguarding of personal information.
- JPMorgan Chase's operations, results and reputation could be harmed by occurrences of extraordinary events beyond its control.
- Data quality is essential to JPMorgan Chase's business and operations, and if JPMorgan Chase fails to maintain adequate data management processes, this could adversely affect its ability to effectively manage its businesses, comply with applicable laws, rules and regulations, or remain competitive.
- Enhanced regulatory and other standards for the oversight of vendors and other service providers can result in higher costs and other potential exposures.
- JPMorgan Chase's risk management framework and control environment will not be effective in identifying and mitigating every risk to JPMorgan Chase.

- JPMorgan Chase could recognise unexpected losses, its capital levels could be reduced and it could face greater regulatory scrutiny if its models, estimations or judgments, including those used in its financial statements, are inadequate or incorrect.
- Lapses, weaknesses or deficiencies in controls over disclosure or financial reporting could materially affect JPMorgan Chase's profitability or reputation.
- JPMorgan Chase's results or competitive standing could suffer if its management fails to develop and execute effective business strategies, and to anticipate changes affecting those strategies.
- JPMorgan Chase faces significant and increasing competition in the rapidly evolving financial services industry.
- The effects of climate change could adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's business and operations, both directly and as a result of impacts on its clients and customers.
- Conduct failure by JPMorgan Chase employees can harm clients and customers, impact market integrity, damage JPMorgan Chase's reputation and trigger litigation and regulatory action.
- JPMorgan Chase's ability to attract and retain qualified employees is critical to its success.
- Unfavourable changes in immigration or travel policies could adversely affect JPMorgan Chase's businesses and operations."
